

The Douglas community has a lot to offer students. Below you will find a list of helpful resources.

COCHISE COLLEGE

The University of Arizona Douglas occupies the north end of Building 700 of the Cochise College Douglas campus. Cochise County Community College District is our partner public two-year community college offering associate degrees and certificates.

<https://www.cochise.edu/>

CONSULATE GENERAL OF MEXICO

Located on Historic G Avenue in downtown Douglas, the Consulate General of Mexico supports the efforts of local students and partners with us to provide space for University of Arizona advising and events:

<https://consulmex.sre.gob.mx/douglas/>

CITY OF DOUGLAS

Douglas Arizona is a small, charming border community with over 100 years of rich history. The City of Douglas supports the efforts of local students and institutes of higher education:

<https://www.douglasaz.gov/>

COCHISE CONNECTION

Cochise Connection is a public bus service operated by the City of Douglas and provides service between Cochise College/University of Arizona and the City of Douglas:

<https://www.douglasaz.gov/399/Cochise-Connection>

LEGACY FOUNDATION OF SOUTHEASTERN ARIZONA RESOURCE GUIDE

Our mission is to promote population health and community wellness. This resource guide contains a listing of all of the health and wellness organizations available to your local community and much more. We hope you use this resource guide to find the services you need to help yourself and others.

<https://legacyfoundationresourceguide.org/home>