

The Yuma, AZ community has a lot to offer students. Below you will find a list of helpful resources.

YUMA COUNTY EXTENSION OFFICE

The University of Arizona Yuma County Extension Office aims to stimulate learning through discovery and exploration, while also enhancing local agriculture, the environment, natural resources, the well-being of family and youth and the development of the local community.

<https://extension.arizona.edu/yuma>

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA YUMA 4H

Yuma County 4-H is a youth development organization committed to giving youth the opportunity to gain life skills in order to become successful, contributing members of society.

<https://extension.arizona.edu/4h/yuma>

University of Arizona MANRRS

https://www.facebook.com/UAMANRRS/?tn-str=k*F

CITY OF YUMA RESOURCES

YUMA VISITORS BUREAU

<https://www.visityuma.com/>

CITY OF YUMA RESOURCES

<https://www.yumaaz.gov/government/municipal-court/resources>

HOSPITAL MENTAL HEALTH RESOURCE

<https://www.yumaregional.org/Medical-Services/Behavioral-Health>

The University of Arizona YUMA FRIENDS OF ARIZONA HEALTH SCIENCES

Yuma Friends of Arizona Health Sciences' mission is to assist Yuma community students' access to health professionals to facilitate the students' knowledge regarding health professional careers in medicine, nursing, pharmacy, or public health, as well as the Health Sciences programs at the University of Arizona.

<https://www.facebook.com/YumaFriendsofAHSC/>

The University of Arizona RESEARCH FARMS

The Yuma Agricultural Center has two sites: a Valley farm four miles west of Yuma and a Mesa Farm four miles south of the city. The 274-acre Valley Farm includes a diversified range of crops, including cotton, small grains, and such vegetables as lettuce and broccoli. The 240-acre Mesa Farm is focused on citrus production.

<https://cals.arizona.edu/aes/yac/>

YUMA FOOD BANK

<https://www.yumafoodbank.org/>

YUMA YMCA

<https://valleymca.org/yuma/>